

Self-Managed Learning Plan

Name: Richard Foley	Unit 29: Effective Lifelong Learning	Facilitator: Steve Smith
Subject: Learning the basics of PHP	Start Date: Wednesday 16th January	End Date: Wednesday 5th March

Learning Objectives	Strategy & Resources	Assessable Products	Assessment Criteria	Hours
1. Research the fundamentals of PHP (Hypertext Preprocessor)	Search the Internet for relevant web tutorials. Read "PHP for the World Wide Web: Visual Quickstart Guide", by Larry Ullman, Peachpit Press; 2 edition (5 Feb 2004). Identify what to aim for and at what level.	Referenced blog post	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> identify learning targets, desired achievements, dates and level of competence to aim for. 	16
2. Learn the basics of PHP	Complete Several tutorials from the www.w3schools.com. Read "PHP and MySQL for Dynamic Web Sites", by Larry Ullman, Published by Peachpit Press; 2 edition (7 Jul 2005).	Completed tutorial screen shots posted in an online journal with evaluations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> use a range of sources in investigating an issue use investigative techniques and recording methods in communication and learning. 	16
3. Prepare for a PHP based website	Produce all the elements of a web plan.	Referenced Web plan, which includes, goals, target audience, delivery requirements, user requirements, competitive analysis and screen designs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> design a basic structure from which to build an interactive media prototype analyse a task and propose a solution 	24
4. Create a working specialist car search and comments website	Use all the knowledge gained from the three previous objectives to produce a PHP website.	Website	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> apply learning skills to a professional interactive media context 	32
5. Evaluate the assignment	Evaluate the product, own performance and the learning plan. Evaluate other peoples in feedback sessions and on blogs.	Evaluation, Time plans, comments and blogs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> assess and evaluate learning experiences 	8